14th European University Futsal Championship Concluded

Gold in the women's competition goes to Dragomanov Ukrainian Pedagogical University, while the men's title is claimed by Azerbaijan State Academy of Physical Education and Sport

On Friday, July 25, 2025, the closing ceremony marked the official end of the 14th European University Futsal Championship in Zagreb, which, from July 17 to 25, brought together over 500 participants from 31 universities across 16 countries.

In the women's competition, the representatives of Dragomanov Ukrainian Pedagogical University (Ukraine) secured first place, finishing the tournament undefeated and conceding only five goals. They triumphed in the final against the University of Barcelona (Spain). The bronze medal went to Rey Juan Carlos University (Spain), who defeated the University of Nantes (France).

In the men's competition, the team from the Azerbaijan State Academy of Physical Education and Sport won gold, beating the University of Valencia (Spain) in the final. The bronze medal went to the University of Castilla-La Mancha (Spain), who overcame the University of Warsaw (Poland).

Croatian representatives in both the men's and women's tournaments were stopped in the quarterfinals. In the men's competition, the University of Split finished fifth, while the University of Zagreb placed sixth. In the women's competition, the University of Zagreb claimed fifth place, and the University of Split finished twelfth.
